Founder and Youth Chaperone @ TDC

At Duenna, we take child safeguarding and welfare seriously, and as such, our chaperones have enhanced disclosures from the Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS), full safeguarding training, full health and safety/First Aid training, and full driving licenses. Our chaperones are also friendly, caring, and experienced professionals who are passionate about providing high-quality chaperone services to children.

Miss Ogunekun founded The Duenna Company after witnessing the difficulties and obstacles her family members faced when sending their children abroad for private education. Inset and exeat days, which required students to vacate their dorms from Friday and only return on Monday, created an added burden for parents who had to fly in to collect their children, stay in hotels, or with family members for a couple of days, return their child to school, and then make their way back to their country of residence.

Miss Adedoyin Ogunekun is a seasoned international admissions manager with extensive experience in one of London's top and diverse universities. Her role involves overseeing the admissions process for international students, which includes managing their CAS's and visas. During her tenure in Secondary and Higher Education posts Miss Ogunekun saw firsthand the challenges that international students face, particularly the difficulties of traveling back and forth between their home countries and the UK. This inspired her to start her own business, The Duenna Company, a chaperone service for international boarding students, to provide them with a "Mother away from home service." Through her research, she discovered a significant gap in the market for chaperone services, which motivated her to offer a comprehensive range of services, including accompanied outings, supervision for private tuition and premises, medical appointments, and bespoke birthday cake service.

For further inquiries about our services or to request a chaperone, please contact us via email at theduenna@hotmail.com, or check out our website at TheDuennaCompany.com and follow us on LinkedIn, Instagram and Facebook (The Duenna Company).

We look forward to hearing from you and serving your chaperone needs.
